Please, we ask that you imbibe from no glass containers today.

2:00 p.m.

Mr. Payback [Danny: Steve] are best summed up as a genuine tribute to the history of invention. Enjoy.

3:00 p.m.

The Standing 69s were once described by a friend as "'77 punk with a little bit of early '80s hardcore influence." Obviously the boys in the band wanna have some fun while bringing back a true punk spirit? They are Chris Lanza, Vocals; Tom Gray, Bass; John Bowden, Guitar; The Gorb, Guitar; Rob Keiger, Drums.

4:00 p.m.

The Cassettes are a zesty three piece that use whatever sounds necessary to push their DIY rock beyond expected limits. They are positively ruthless, except for when they're being vulnerable. Nora's thick, meaty bass dodges spiny tumble-weeds of Colin's crackpot Moonish fills that blow, helter-skelter through

FOR THE CHILDREN.

6:00 p.m.

Nightcream formed in Spring 2000. All songs so far have been written by guitarist Hot Carl whose influences seem to be early Slayer, early Iron Maiden, Black Sabbath and some other early '80s metal crap. So what you have sound-wise is old-school heavy metal, loud as fuck, with raging, angry vocals over the top. All lyrics are written by Thugbad and are seriously pissed, with topics of death, molestation, white trash and clergy who waste their lives serving a non-existent god, amongst other things. Thugbad's favorite vocalists include Davide from Raw Power, Oddy from Broken Bones and Lemmy from Motorhead. Most people are unaware of Hot Carl's bionic sphincter. Members are Esqueletor, drums; Hot Carl, guitar; Thugbad, vocals; Fuckin' Pat, bass; Devilman, guitar.

7:25 p.m.

The Vacancies are a seasoned four-piece, hard-hitting, rock 'n' roll band. Their live shows are turbo-charged tantrums driven by a sweaty love for the lost art of rock. They are Billy Crooked, vocals; Michael James, guitar; Kari Krash, bass, Wattt Watkins, drums.

8:50 p.m.

King Nixon formed in 1999 with the purpose of playing "songs the way we want to hear them, traditional music in the key of Rock." The band revolves around founder Dave Atkins and many guests and friends both live and in the studio. Dave Atkins, vocals, and core members Jeff Herwick, bass, Dave Swanson, guitars, Lou Vogel, keyboards, and of course, Scott Pickering, drums.

10:30 p.m.

Easy Action are a hard-rockin' four piece outta Detroit with a heavy punk edge thanks to lead shouter John Brannon (formerly of hardcore inventors Negative Approach and blues wastoids Laughing Hyenas) The band named after the Alice Cooper Band's second LP have been around and touring for a few years leaving devastation and devotees in their path thanks to Harold Richardson, guitar, Jon Lemay, drums and Ron Sakowski (also ex-Hyenas), bass. So F U and get down!

What is Studio-A-Rama?

College radio is one of the few sources of airplay of local and regional original music in Cleveland. Due to the opportunity for exposure before a concert and radio audience, Studio-A-Rama is recognized as a keen performance opportunity for local musicians.

WRUW-FM presents Studio-A-Rama to thank its listeners who donated to the station's annual on-air fundraiser and to show the station's commitment towards supporting local musicians and live music performance.

The concert is an expanded edition of "Live from Cleveland," the station's weekly hour-long live music program airing Thursdays at 10 PM. All "Live from Cleveland" and Studio-A-Rama performances are recorded to digital format for on-air use.

WRUW has maintained strong support for the Cleveland music scene throughout its history. In 1991, the station created the weekly "Live from Studio A," ("Live from Cleveland's" predecessor), the now-defunct "Reel Live Music" (pre-taped), and the annual Studio-A-Rama summer concert.

Past performers include Unrest, Wreck, Naked Raygun, Death of Samantha, My Dad is Dead, the New Salem Witch Hunters, Prisonshake, Morsel, NRG Ensemble, Mule, DuValby Bros, Glazed Baby, U.S. Maple, Mount Shasta, New Bomb Turks, The Upper Crust, Tomorrow and many others we could list here, but all of a sudden we ran out of roo...

WRUW-FM 91.1 is located at 11220 Bellflower Rd., Cleveland, OH 44106.

This Studio-A-Rama 2001 Program was scribed by Blackie Sabbath. Cover art by J. Kelly. Eleven years of last-minute layout by Joe "Memory" Banks.
